Dear Judge Castel:

My office respectfully appears as substitute attorney for defendant Grand Sichuan International 24 Inc. in connection with the above-referenced matter. A Notice of Appearance will be filed shortly as soon as the Court's ECF system is back from scheduled maintenance shutdown.

This letter is respectfully submitted to request that the Court extend any pending proceedings by three (3) weeks until after December 12, 2007. The extension is necessary because I will be on trial before Chief Magistrate Judge Gold, E.D.N.Y., in an unrelated matter from November 27 to December 3, 2007 and draft and submit post-trial submissions in that week. Thereafter, I will need time to review the file. Additionally, I am informed that the parties' settlement discussions have been ongoing and I understand that the parties' settlement positions are realistically close.

Plaintiff's counsel, Michael Faillace, Esq., has consented to this application. Accordingly, the Court is requested to grant the application.

Respectfully submitted,
